Presidents Message

Hello Everyone!

This year is shaping up to be an exciting year! With the formation of several new committees we hope to explore some new learning opportunities available to our non pro's, keep you more informed of both affiliate and year end standings and with the help of Bill Bean of Pro Management a complete overhaul of our ailing web site is in the works.

The stallion auction was a huge success this year (those who contributed breedings we can't thank you enough for your support and for those who purchased breedings thank you as well!) There are still a few breedings available if you missed out so check them out and spread the word. www.swrha.com.

We are busy planning this year's SWRHA Futurity and Show set for Oct. 24-Oct. 28, 2007 in Ardmore. There will be more money added! More golf carts to be won! And more merchandise prizes! So...Don't miss out! We hope to make this year's show better than ever!

You can access more information, show schedules, membership forms, etc. on our website www.swrha.com. Keep checking for the new, easier to navigate, up to date, jazzed up site!

Good luck to those attending the Glen Rose show this weekend.

Stampede I Show

Anyone who attended Mark Miller's Stampede 1 show held last month in Ardmore would have to agree that the show was a huge success. This was the first year that Mark put on a show in February and the number of entries in each class proved that everyone was happy to show early in the year. The largest class had over 80 entries!

This was the first year end and affiliate qualifying show for the SWRHA. We had several of our members take home championship titles from this show. Ward Ferch showed Jim Babcock's gorgeous stallion Cowboy Smarts to the Reserve Championship title in the Open division. Kinzy Donnelly brought home a Championship in the Novice Horse Open with KR Chexy Sailor for owner Cynthia Booker, as well as a Reserve Championship in the Limited Open with Jeri Mcleod's Dottie Diamond. Kinzy's daughter Jordan added to the loot with Championships in both the Non Pro and the 13 and under divisions. Ron Thompson and his good horse Gay Bar Chic were right in there too, taking the Reserve Championship in the Non Pro. Jackie Redish showed her beautiful palomino Hesa Slick Nic to a Co Championship in the Novice Horse Non Pro. Melanie Hutchins put together a great ride with Tejonita Jac to take the Reserve Championship in the Limited Non Pro, as well as Cynthia Booker riding her horse Taris Wildcat to earn the Reserve Championship in the Rookie. The youth kids proved to be just a tough, with Sarah Shafer and Miss White Lightning taking home the Championship in the 14-18, followed closely by Audra Ames and The Natural Answer with the Reserve title. Cody Kile rode well with his horse Sunday With A Twist to finish up with the Reserve Championship in the 13 and under.

Congratulations to everyone who competed at this incredible show! The next SWRHA approved show will be Mark Miller's Stampede II, held March 16-18th at Glen Rose, TX. For more information on this show and others approved by the SWRHA, please refer to our website at www.swrha.com.
